Black Management Forum Achievement Awards Dinner

“Celebrating 40 Years of Changing the Transformation Landscape”

Adv. Thuli Madonsela,
Public Protector of South Africa
Gallagher Estate, Midrand
The journey of a 1,000 miles begins with a single step: 40 years of advancing a notion of excellence that embraces diversity.
The vision was about affirming excellence in the manner that embraces diversity.
The vision was born out of the pain of being excluded solely because of race and then begrudgingly included.
Black Management Forum has been a model of Ethical, Purposeful, Impactful and Committed (EPIC) leadership
Black Economic Empowerment

Supporting Chapter 9 institutions
The journey continues: What is the role of the Black Management Forum now into the future?
A call for Ethical, Purposeful, Impactful and Committed (EPIC) leadership in all areas of society
Black Management Forum has to play a role in supporting constitutional democracy
Social injustice: As long as there is injustice somewhere, there can never be sustainable peace anywhere.
Social injustice: As long as there is injustice somewhere, there can never be sustainably peace anywhere.
Social injustice: As long as there is injustice somewhere, there can never be sustainable peace anywhere.
Strengthening the institutions of democracy: A partnership for Good Governance
The young leaders are the ones we have been waiting for
The South Africa we want is in our collective hands.
Thank you

Twitter:
@PublicProtector
@ThuliMadonsela3